

Poker Texas hold'em. The rules of the game for beginners combination cards are dealt, the commencement of trading in the flop the turn the river the showdown practice video Attention the simplest lesson for beginners here. Texas hold'em is the most common and easy to learn variation of poker. It plays the most players and is played money the main tournament of the world championship of the WSOP 2006 brought the winner of 12 million U.S. dollars. In online tournaments, also a record number of participants is more than 200 000 people Hold'em can play in tournaments and just for money cache. Sitting at the table from 2 to 10 people. In the game of money winning the hand you win the pot money is wagered in this hand players. In tournament poker one hand solves nothing and the goal there is to win as many chips as possible, optimally all in all, and occupy a high place with a good prize. In any case, the game consists of many hands that you can win in two ways Game Texas poker online is interesting and free chips but really played just for the money. Beginner games are symbolic sums at rates of 2-4 cents higher, and when at the table you can sit down with 20 cents. The maximum practical limits are not limited to the Internet, you can easily play poker betting 50-100$ or more. The game is played with the classic 52-card deck without jokers more. Once the players are dealt 2 hole cards and the rest 5 cards are opened in the center of the table gradually 3+1+1 and used by all players to complete a combination. Thus the end of the hand the player available 7 cards but use for the combination of 5-i.e. hold'em game on the five best out of seven possible cards. According to the rules of online poker Texas hold'em before any cards are dealt are two forced bets or blinds blinds blind so immediately at the table had the money for that will to fight. The first player left of the dealer is called small blind Small Blind or SB, he has to put half a bet or 1 cent in the game designated as $002$004. Next is the big blind the Big Blind or BB, he has to put full-time or 2 cents. The cards are dealt, Playing pass the turn to the dealer is marked by a circle called the "button" button on it usually shows the letter D. the Cards are dealt one at a time clockwise. Players make decisions alternately clockwise from the button so he said the last. Texas holdem poker game in which the player's position has a serious impact on its capabilities than later you decide seeing that made rivals the better so the position of the button is very important. Commencement of trading in Preflop Since the blinds are forced bets by the player after the big blind has the first word. He can say Fold and

Link to article:: Poker Texas hold'em. The rules of the game for beginners